INSANE HOSPITAL VACANCY

Academy-Williams and Walker in "A | The Head of St. Elizabeth's is Within the Classified Service.

Kernan's Lyceum Theater-Big Sensation Dr. A. H. Witmer Appointed Acting Superintendent-Has Grown Up

With the Institution.

No appointment will be made in the near future to fill the position of superintendent of the Government Hospital for the Insane, made vacant by the death of Dr. W. W. Goading. As heretotore stated in The Star, the senior physician of the institution, Dr. A. H. Witmer, has been made acting superintendent and has given bond in the George Francis Williams and Robert S. W. Gooding. As heretotore stated in The sum of $50,000 as the disbursing officer of the institution and $5,000 for the care of the patients' fund. Applications for the position are coming in every day. It is regarded as one of the best within the gift of the Secretary of the Interior. Aside from the lucrative salary of $4,000 per annum, there is a prestige given the head of this institution that no be many who will visit this resort for the other simi ar office offers. Few people understand, however, that the institution is in the classified service, and there is no eligible list from which to draw. There seems little doubt that the Secretary of the interfer wil appoint Dr. Witmer as the successor of Dr. Godding. Aside from the successor of Dr. Godding. Ashe by the fact that the appointment would be following the idea of civil service, as a matter of promotion. Dr. Witmer has grown up with the institution and has a grown up with the institution and has a Baum, W. Strum; Star Spangled Banner, by the business of the successor of Dr. Godding. Ashe by the su knowledge of its affairs that no outsider could possess.

It may become necessary, however, for the Secretary to order an examination to establish an eligible register. This was done in the Freedmen's Hospital case, and is another way of shifting responsibility. Secretary Hitchcock said to a reporter for The Star this morning that there is no immediate prospect of the appointment of Present." Deputy Grand Master Ward fol- a superintendent at St. Elizabeth's. It is an important position, he said, and he de-sires time to carefully study the conditions. He said several applications have been received already, but called attention to the fact that the position is protected by the civil service.

> Dr. Witmer's Career. Dr. A. H. Witmer was born in Lancaster county, Pa., April 10, 1845. His early education was obtained through instruction of private tutors and in local academies. Having entered upon the study of medicine when quite young, he had the distinction of Office Department delivered an interesting graduating from Jefferson Medical College in Philadelphia, Pa., before he was twentyone years of age, and upon his twenty-first with the work going on in the department for the insane of the Philadelphia City Hos-pital. About the same time Dr. Witmer became engaged as a private teacher of anat-omy and later became demonstrator of omy and later became demonstrator of anatomy at his alma mater, Jefferson Medical College, remaining in this position for five years. After this he served as demon-strator of anatomy at the University of Pennsylvania for several years.

It was in September, 1876, that Dr. Wit-mer was called to the Government Hospital for the Insane, to take charge of the male department as third assistant physician un-der Dr. Charles H. Nichols, who was then superintendent.

Twice Promoted.

After a short time he was advanced to the position of second assistant physician under the late superintendent, Dr. W. W. Godding, and later was again promoted, this time to the post of first assistant physician in charge of the female department, which position he has held for the past fifteen years. In 1881 he found his health becoming somewhat impaired, and secured leave of absence for six months, without pay, and went to Europe. During his trip he visited the majority of English asylums for the insane, noting the methods in treating insanity and in caring for the patients. During this time he acted as a delegate from the Government Hospital to the international medical congress at London While making this tour he also visited asy lums in France and spent some time at St. Ann's Asylum for the Insane, in Parls, as the guest of the well-known Dr. Beau-chereau. In 1890 Dr. Witmer was again abroad and spent half a year in touring the continent, visiting hespitals and asylums in Germany, Italy. France and going into Turkey. Egypt and Algiers. He again acted as delegate to the international medical congress, this time at Berlin. He has made other trips abroad and has been an extensive traveler in his own country as

Dr. Witmer is a member of the National Geographic Society, and is also connected with prominent medical societies, including those of the District. He is on the medical staff of the Georgetown University Medical College. He has published an interesting work on "Insanity in the Colored Race." He has acted as superintendent of St. Elizabeth's many times during Dr. God-ding's absence on leave, and, having been a confidant of the late superintendent, is be-lieved to be better able than any other man to continue his policy.

The lovers of good music should not fail to accompany the Arion Singing Society to River View tomorrow and enjoy the mu-sical treat that is in store for them. The Arion, one of the leading musical societies of the city, is composed of the best-known German vocalists in the city, and its outings are always looked forward to with much interest. Tomorrow the elaborate musical program to be rendered by the society, assisted by the ladies' chorus of some forty voices, will be made up of gems from the works of the leading German masters and will be as follows: Im Walde, H. Speilter; Fruehlings Tubel, Th. Hemberger; Im Land Tyrol, M. Penschel; Silberns Bachy. The instrumental concert will be by River View Orchestra, under the leadership of Prof. Chris Arth, jr., and popular German airs will be rendered. Those who do not care for music and simply wish to spend a few hours away from town, where the air is fresh and the grass and trees are at their greenest, will find plenty to amuse them in the chute and other attractions of the View and in the pleasant sail down and up the river. GAVE UP HOPE. FRIEND RECOMMENDS CU-TICURA, CHANGE IN ONE NIGHT. CURED ONE MONTH.

I was troubled with eczema on the face for five months, during which time I was in care of physicians. My face was in suell a condition that I could not go out. It was going from had to worse and I gave up all hope, when a friend of mine highly recommended CUTICURA REMEDIES. The first night after I washed my face with CUTICURA SOAP and used CUTICURA (continuity) and CUTICURA RESOLVENT it changed wonderfully, and continuing the treatment it removed all scales and scabs. From that day I was able to go out, and in a month my face was as clean as ever.

Thomas Henry Grant Pleads Guilty to Thomas Henry Grant, a young colored man, whose actions indicated the necessity for an examination to determine his mental condition, pleaded guilty to a charge of arson when arraigned in Judge Scoti's court this morning. The court held him for the grand jury, and committed him to jail in default of $1,000 security.

In addition to the prisoner's otherwise peculiar conduct he says he had been soaked with whisky for two weeks. He has a home in South Washington, but he prefers to sleep in lumber yards and on grass plats. to enjoy the sight of "the beautiful horses and shining engines."

It is stated that owing to the failure of the fire alarm wires to work the scheme did not result as Grant had expected, and one company had to be sent for. There was not much of a blaze, and the disappointed incendiary soon left the neighborhood.

He intimated that because of his guilty conscience, he imagined he was being pursued by the police and when he had besued by the police, and when he had be-come tired and his feet hurt him he met Policeman Duvall and surrendered to him. To the officer he told the story of his crime, and said he did it for amusement. All he wanted was to see the engines. Night before last he said he made an attempt to burn a lumber yard near the Long bridge, but the wood was too wet to burn. These, he said, were the only times he made such attempts. He seemed to think he had perpetrated a great joke.

The little "sparks" of bad blood, still lurking in the system after a dull winter, will, if allowed to go unheeded, gather force and make trouble. Stop them at once with Hood's Sarsaparilla, America's great blood purifier. It expels all blood humors from both sexes and all ages.

Eczema -- "Several years ago eczema eruptions appeared on my neck and physiciaus said 'Worst they ever saw.' A druggist advised me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. I took it until a complete cure was effected." C. C. BAILEY, Champaign, Ill.

Nervousness—"I was severely burned about the face and afterward was continually nervous. Tried various remedies with no effect. Three bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla cured me." BLANCHE W. BRIDGES, 11 Market St. Newherrhort Mayer st., Newburypert, Mass.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Is America's Greatest Medicine. Hood's Pills cure liver ills; the non-irritating and only cathartic to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

CITY ITEMS.

Chr. Xander, 909 7th St. The reliable merchant, who should be responsible for every drop of wine or liquor he sells, deprecates acting merely as second-hand dealer or agent of what in sealed bottles is put up by others, unless he rears no stock in casks, or is deficient in criminating qualities. Chr. Xander h the richest warehouse stock and admits other people's bottlings only when the goods cannot be obtained in bulk. His invitation to patrons is: "Come, see, examine, compare, test my standards in the original barrels for safe selection." No fusel poison de-files any liquors he sells. His grandest, ancient Tennessee Whisky, $5 gal., $1.25 qt. and the next grade above the average, $4 gal., $1 qt., conquer over many rivals. 1t
